

Jumpchain Inventory Bag Supplement.

In the original Pokemon CYOA you get a bag, with no description other than that it's "Bigger on the Inside". This optional supplement allows you to specify exactly what your bag's appearance and capabilities are. You can take this supplement even if you haven't taken the Pokemon Jump though. As per usual, you get 1000 CP. Yes you can divide this across multiple bags. The features you purchase only affect one though.

Bag Type: Do keep in mind that the size of the bag's opening restricts the size of objects that you can fit inside of it. All options appear full, but feel weightless when worn.
